

The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, March 4. 1707.

From the Amst. Courant, dated March 1.

Badajos, Feb. 1.

THE 29th of last Month in the Morning the Marquis de Bay arriv'd here from Alcantara, and was welcom'd with a Discharge of our Artillery: The same Day he took a View of all our Fortifications and Magazines, muster'd the Garrison Yesterday; and to Day very early set out from hence, the Cannon being agen fir'd, and with a Guard of 60 Dragoons took his Way by Arrojo del Puerco, Truxillo, and Almaraz for Madrid, to assist in the Councils of War that are to be held there about the Operations of the ensuing Campaign. The Portuguese Troops grow numerous on the Frontier, and are providing a Train of Artillery at Elvas and Olivenza: 'Tis apprehended they design to make an Irruption into Andaloufia or Estramadura.

Seville, Feb. 3. Three Regiments which were rais'd by this City two Years ago for the Service of King Philip, and which are garrison'd in Cadix, being very much diminish'd; Recruits are raising here, at the earnest Instance of the Court, to compleat them. In Andaloufia all the Horses are taken up, with what Intention is not yet known.

Pampelona, Feb. 12. All the French Forces that are in Navarre, are order'd to get ready to march into Arragon, to oppose the Arragonians that are in Arms, who grow very numerous, and threaten to make an Irruption into the Kingdom of Navarre. We are expecting the Arrival here of Wagons loaded with Arms from Bayone, for the Recruits which are arriv'd from Bearn and other Provinces of France. Couriers are perpetually passing through this Place, between the Courts of Spain and France. This Morning Count Tilly went from hence for Exea, to give Order for repairing the Fortifications of that Plcce.

Venice, Feb. 12. 'Tis advis'd from Verona, that General Medavi has put strong Reinforcements into Ostiglia, Borgoforte, Revere, and Mirandola; and that he has caus'd above

150 Cannon to be plac'd on the Walls of Mantua, and made all necessary Dispositions for defending that City vigorously if attack'd.

Casal, Feb. 8. Some of the Duke of Savoy's Troops are on the March to assist in the Siege of the Castle of Milan. We are embarking Cannon and Ammunition here, which is design'd for attacking Valenza. The New Fortifications of Verue are countermanded, but those of Chivas are carried on with all possible Diligence.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated March 1.

Grenoble, Feb. 17. The 15th Instant arriv'd here the Baggage and several Servants of the Marshal de Thesse, who is expected here the 19th. 'Tis say'd the said Marshal has Order from the King of France to go to Turin, upon an important Commission to the Duke of Savoy, but 'tis believ'd his Royal Highness will not abandon the Interest he is engag'd in. The Troops in this Part of the Country have Orders to hold themselves in a Readyness to march; but for Want of many things we shall not be able to open the Campaign so soon as has been given out. Some Advices from Pignerol and Turin, say the Castle of Milan is besieg'd by 15000 Men. 5 Battalions and 2 Regiments of Horse are on the March towards Toulon, and 'tis said are design'd to be transported to Naples.

Plymouth, Feb. 28. The 26th came in the St. Anthony of Padua of and from Middleburg for Viana; the Mary and the John and Elizabeth of and from Topsham for Lisbon. Yesterday sail'd 12 Dutch Ships bound home from France: And the Southampton Transport for St. Malo with Prisoners. Came in the Fleet Galley of and from London for Dublin and Leghorne. To Day came in the Green Lyon of and for Rotterdam from Limerick; sail'd Eight Dutch Ships for Holland from France. Sail'd also the Beake Galley from Leghorne for London.

Yarmouth, Feb. 28. This Day pass'd through our Roads Her Majesty's Ship the Solebay, with about 40 Corn Vessels and Coasters from Lynn and that Coast, bound for the River.

Hartwich, March 1. Yesterday the Rochester-Prize with 50 Sail of Coasters under her Convoy arriv'd here; and being joyn'd by the Postillion sail'd agen this Morning for Hull, &c. The Convoy for the Transportships are not yet arriv'd, so that no Horfes are yet embark'd for Flanders.
